Correction's Wonderful Performance at a Mile and a Furlong.

Pittsburg Phil Said to Have Been a Heavy Loser Yesterday.

Tom Tough and Vestibule Furnish a Rattling Contest.

1.54 1-4, at Linden yesterday, was a wonderful performance, considering the reputation the mare has acquired. She surprised every one a few days ago by runsecond to Candelabra in a mile bate ning second to Candelebra in a mile dark, and her chances were so little dash, and her chances were so little being from the fourth flowed by personal live in thought of yesterday, that 7 to 1 was quoted against her. Those who have quoted against her. Those who have seen her quit like a cur in six-furlong dash, and a chance to win the open freeder to had a chance to win the open yes easily, in the fastest time of the faste performers as Picknicker, Leantaka, Candelabra, and Fidello.

Yesterday's race makes it look probable that the trainer of the Morrishorses has been making a mistake regarding Domino's sister. Apparently Fred Littlefield, in whose charge the Morrishorses now are has solved the secret of how to make Correction sing a distance. Fred is handling the string in able fashion, and he deserves all credit, for he is an earnest worker.
